ABOUT

Dr. Tommy Shavers is a Speaker, Trainer, Author and Consultant. Shavers is a devoted motivational and inspirational speaker, addressing the keys to personal development, overcoming obstacles, and transforming your mind to sustain real success. He is great for groups looking for a speaker who speaks from a lifetime of accomplishments and first-hand experience on topics such as Leadership, Teamwork and Development. Shavers has a passion for helping individuals and organizations become built on principles while being driven by purpose. He has the unique ability to entertain, challenge, educate, and motivate his audience with a participatory style that keeps them engaged.

Dr. Shavers has a BA in Organization Communication, an MA in Interpersonal Communication, an MA in Biblical Studies, and a DM in Organizational Leadership. He is also a former Collegiate Athlete and currently a USA Track & Field Level 1 Certified Coach. With this experience, Tommy brings real-world advice, carefully researched facts, memorable humor and powerful stories to the platform in order to shake up, wake up and motivate audiences in ways that produce lasting results.

He offers strategies to motivate you to action and improve your performance, your leadership, and your ability to think in new and creative ways. His presentations are high-energy, high-impact, and content-driven. He has an exceptional gift to speak to an audience and communicate to the heart, as if he is speaking to each one individually. His ability to develop effective and relevant presentations specifically for your attendees will result in long-term impact.
