Dr. Tommy Shavers Biography

Dr. Tommy Shavers is the president of Tommy Speak LLC., which is a speaking, consulting, and training company focused on leadership, teamwork, and development. Dr. Shavers has a passion for helping individuals and organizations become built on principles, while being driven by purpose. He has the unique ability to entertain, challenge, educate, and motivate his audience with a participatory style that keeps them engaged.

He is also the President and co-founder of Unus Solutions Inc., a Christ-centered consulting, development, and gospel advancing non-profit organization. He is the author of The Next CEO - A leadership parable, None of the Above - The Power & Pitfalls of Worship, and Life in the Trenches - Joys and Challenges of Christians in Sports, and Huddle UP - strengthening team development.

Thanks to his faith, his hard work, and attitude, Dr. Shavers has overcome an upbringing of extreme poverty and violence to become the husband, father, and entrepreneur he is today. Shavers has a unique gift to inform as well as captivate his audience as he relays his professional experiences coupled with his evidence-based and data-driven research in a hilarious and heart-warming style.

Dr. Shavers has a BA in Organization Communication, an MA in Interpersonal Communication, an MA in Biblical Studies, and a DM in Organizational Leadership. He is also a former Collegiate Athlete and currently a USA Track & Field Level 1 Certified Coach. With this experience, Shavers brings real-world advice, carefully researched facts, memorable humor and powerful stories to the platform in order to shake up, wake up and motivate audiences in ways that produce lasting results.

His inspirational messages have reached those from all walks of life who are invested in the development of people: parents, educators, administrators, leaders, athletes and organizations. Dr. Shavers' programs will leave a lasting impression on your event and its audience. His ability to develop effective and relevant presentations specifically for your attendees will result in long-term impact.
